The „Bar jeder Vernunft“

Bar – theatre – cabaret

(T)raum ist in der kleinsten Hütte

Space is in the smallest place

The theatre “Bar jeder Vernunft” resides in an old dancing tent from the turn of the last century. Meet the adventure entertainment here night for night: headless, without constraints, terrific, and beautiful! Fearlessly and with renewed freshness we will face up to the genres cabaret, comedy and chanson and their most innovative shapes.

Artistic profile

The “Bar jeder Vernunft” opened in June 1992 and established itself very quickly as a location of extraordinary entertainment art in an extraordinary ambience. The cabaret theatre entertains seven evenings a week with programmes ranging from show, comedy, cabaret, literature, theatre, often ignoring all traditional genre borders.

The mirror tent’s regular artists are amongst others Ars Vitalis, the Geschwister Pfister, Meret Becker, Max Raabe, Otto Sander, Cora Frost, Georgette Dee, Gayle Tufts, Pigor & Eichhorn, Götz Alsmann, and Ulrich Tukur.

The breakthrough for also nationwide recognition brought the first big independent production of the “Bar jeder Vernunft” in 1994/95, the new production of the operetta “Im Weißen Rößl am Wolfgangsee” (amongst others with Meret Becker, Max Raabe, Geschwister Pfister, Otto Sander, Gerd Wameling, Walter Schmidinger). This was followed by, amongst others, productions such as “Drei alte Schachteln in der Bar” in 1996 with Brigitte Mira, Helen Vita and Evelyn Künneke, “Diva Gut” in 1998 with Georgette Dee, Cora Frost, Mouron and the Popette Betancor, and in 1999 “The Voice of Snow White” from and with the Geschwister Pfister.

In 2002, the Bar indulged itself not only with three independent productions for its tenth anniversary ("Ffilmusic" with Ars Vitalis and Meret Becker, "Therapie zwecklos" with the Geschwister Pfister, Meret Becker and Stefan Kurt, "Palast der Liebe" from and with Cora Frost) but also opened up a new location: TIPI – the tent in the Tiergarten at the Federal Chancellery.

The "Bar jeder Vernunft" dared another new big independent production in 2004: the musical CABARET. The American star choreographer and director Vincent Paterson could be won over to the production, with Anna Loos-Liefers, Angela Winkler, Eric Rentmeister, Guido Kleineidam and Margarita Broich as the leading roles the musical was a great success. Momme Röhrbein is responsible for the stage design, Fiona Bennett for the costumes. 2005 CABARET was resumed with rapturous applause from press and audience.

The "Bar jeder Vernunft" stands for a sophisticated and innovative programme which is with its intelligent entertainment as much beyond classical theatre as it is beyond shallow entertainment. This is even more remarkable as the "Bar jeder Vernunft" is one of the few theatres in Germany which receives no subsidies but instead relies on its success with its audience. In turn, this means a tightrope walk for programme planning to decide between the presentation of well known stars which often use the artistic freedom of the "Bar jeder Vernunft" to try out new things, and the promotion of unknown artists and innovative projects in the realm of entertainment. The discovery and promotion of unknown artists is the biggest challenge for the "Bar jeder Vernunft". Finding genuine talents, which present something completely new and of their own making rarely happens. In a city like Berlin, offering culture in excess, a lot of energy is needed to convince the media and the audience of new things.

Mirror tent

The "Bar jeder Vernunft" resides in a original art nouveau mirror tent which was made at the turn of the century in the Netherlands as a "Danse Palais" for seaside resorts. The tent seats 270 members of the audience.

Patrons

The "Bar jeder Vernunft" is more than 'just' a location. It has always been our goal to also be a meeting place and provide a platform for dialogue for and amongst artists. Such a goal can only be achieved through the support of the artists themselves and through the active and creative people in our cultural

Funding

As the “Bar jeder Vernunft” is not publicly funded it needs several other opportunities to secure its survival. Ticket sales alone are not enough to finance a theatre.
